

Guidelines for Exchange Students – autumn 2022 Department of Psychology

Please carefully read the guidelines below and check the relevant course list before completing the online Course selection form for incoming exchange students in the Incoming Portal.

1. Course lists

The course list contains complete overviews of all courses offered to exchange students accepted to the Department of Psychology for the autumn semester 2022 – you can find information about ECTS load, exams, and pre-requisites, as well as links to detailed online course descriptions.

2. Restrictions, requirements, and tips for selecting courses

Restrictions

It is only possible to follow courses offered by the Department of Psychology. Please note that the department offers bachelor and master courses and it is not possible to mix the levels or follow courses at other departments. Once you are enrolled in a course, you cannot change the courses.

Course content

Please read the detailed course descriptions in the online course catalogue thoroughly before submitting the course selection form (see links in the course list). Please note that it is not possible to follow courses at other departments. Some of the courses are offered on both levels and then the syllabus varies as well as the exam form.

ECTS and study load requirements

Courses are either 5 or 10 ECTS. You must enroll in courses corresponding to a maximum of 25-30 ECTS per semester.

Type of exams

Autumn semester teaching activities finish in December but the exam period lasts until late January. You can find detailed information about exams in each course description. All exams at psychology are Take-home exams so it is possible for you to go home in December before Christmas and then upload your exam papers in January from home.

3. Timetables

From April 28 you can access the teaching timetable for each course via AU's online timetable management system. Select "Adding timetables for modules" in the drop-down menu and follow the link and the instructions.

We need to know this before semester’s start so you need to send us an email to bss.international@au.dk by 1 of July.
