The valuable community

In the right environment, the community will always flourish. Therefore, we have made a lot of effort to ensure that all everyday appliances work. You need to feel at home, so that you can concentrate 100% on your studies and leisure.

Come together

At HHstudenthousing it is our experience that the students in Unit House really have a positive and fun time together. Typically, these are communities that work well and many of the students remain friends for years. We believe that the physical environment around a study stay is extremely important.
